Hotel Anthracite Celebrates Grand Opening

Carbondale, PA (May 28, 2018) — Hotel Anthracite celebrated its Grand Opening on Thursday May 17th with a ribbon cutting ceremony featuring Mayor Justin Taylor, Rob Grimm, Justin Genzlinger, and many employees, family and friends. It was a joyous occasion and a culmination of months of work for all parties involved.

The evening kicked off with live music by Eric Rudy, a wine tasting welcome in the canary café and guests dined on the new menu at Kōl Steakhouse.

“We are pleased to see the outpouring of community support for the hotel, restaurant and Gravity Hall, the event center.” Said Manager Chris Simpler.

“We are hoping to attract business and leisure travelers as well as locals.” Shared Justin Genzlinger, CEO of Settlers Hospitality. “There’s great potential in Carbondale for revitalization and we’re thrilled to be a part of it.”

Hotel Anthracite and Kōl Steakhouse are open daily. Kōl Steakhouse features breakfast, lunch, dinner and a tavern menu. Hotel Anthracite will continue the tradition of Live Tribute Bands on the rooftop as their, ‘Summer Sounds’ series featuring such bands as Popstar Drive (formerly AM Radio), Lakini’s Rooster, Se Acabo and many more. These shows are every Friday from June 8th to Aug 31st, 7-10pm and only $5/Person.
