A Winning Combination

The Sayre Mansion Joins Forces with Catering by Karen Hunter

Bethlehem, PA (September 15th, 2020)– One of the Lehigh Valley's preeminent catering businesses has found a home at The Sayre Mansion. Catering by Karen Hunter is now part of Settlers Hospitality, the parent company that owns The Sayre Mansion. The acquisition melts together the culinary talents of a renowned local chef with the refined hospitality synonymous with The Sayre Mansion.

Catering by Karen Hunter will craft thoughtful menus for events on premises at The Sayre Mansion as well as off-site. Catering by Karen Hunter is the preferred caterer at venues such as Allentown Art Museum, Miller Symphony Hall, Barrister's Club and Historic Bethlehem Museum and Sites. The historic grandeur of the 1858 Sayre Mansion is a distinctive setting that can host up to 150 guests. "We are beyond thrilled to add Karen Hunter's exquisite cuisine and decades of experience to The Sayre Mansion family, states General Manager and Director of Sales Sarah Trimmer. "Stay tuned for all of the exciting things this relationship has in store."

Karen will continue to create personalized events that provide full-service catering, quality rentals, professional planning services and award-winning food. "I'm thrilled to join the team at Settlers Hospitality. Our off-premise catering offerings will transition perfectly with the same high-quality food and service our customers have come to enjoy," explains Karen.

A shared commitment to quality and careful attention to detail makes the blending of the two companies a natural fit. Since going into business full time in 1994, Catering by Karen Hunter has earned a reputation as the area's premier caterer. "Karen has been the exclusive caterer for Sayre Mansion for 26 years. We're proud to welcome her to the Settlers Hospitality family and look forward to continued success as we move forward with this exciting evolution of the business," says Justin Genzlinger, Owner/CEO of Settlers Hospitality.
