The Poconos Has a New Dream Team

Settlers Hospitality and Camp Oneka Partner to Host Special Events

Hawley, PA (January 21, 2021)- Settlers Hospitality recently joined forces with Camp Oneka in Tafton, PA to bring the Pocono Mountains a brand-new special events venue with a history that's over 100 years in the making. Through the unique partnership, one of the oldest summer camps in the nation will host gatherings coupled with the renowned service and cuisine of Settlers Hospitality.

Since its founding in 1908, Camp Oneka has been a landmark in the Lake Region. Scores of young women have spent cherished summer getaways at the camp including such notable alumnae as Grace Kelly and her daughters Princesses Caroline and Stephanie. Situated on the shores of Fairview Lake amid seven woodland acres, the authentic Adirondack style camp combines rustic elegance and pristine natural beauty. The location provides a unique setting for weddings, corporate retreats, family reunions and a multitude of events.

Lakeside lawns, rambling docks, a 1910 log and fieldstone lodge and an expansive wood-clad boat house are just a few of the options on site. The experienced, professional event coordinators from Settlers Hospitality will assist in every aspect of planning and executing gatherings at Camp Oneka. Settlers Hospitality recently launched Blu Stone Caterers to provide its signature cuisine, superior quality and attention to detail to off-site events. Blu Stone Caterers will bring creative menus in a variety of styles, price points and themes to any occasion at Camp Oneka. "We're delighted to give our clients the option of having their event at this historic property," explained Justin Genzlinger, CEO/Owner, Settlers Hospitality. "The traditions and quality cultivated at Camp Oneka mirror our own. This partnership allows us to provide a different kind of experience and enhances our venue choices in an entirely new way."

Camp Oneka maintains its historic charm without sacrificing modern conveniences. A continual commitment to preservation and improvements carried on by current owners Johnny and Rachel Waszczak means visitors have the nostalgia of yesteryear and comforts of today. "We are thrilled to partner with Settlers Hospitality. Like Camp Oneka, Settlers boasts strong traditions and a rich history in the Pocono Mountains," stated co-owner Rachel Waszczak. "Bringing our worlds together is a natural fit. We have a sign in the Lodge that reads, 'let the world be better because of you.' We feel the world will be better with our new partnership that will create magical events for years to come."

Events may be booked at Camp Oneka from mid-August through mid-June. For more information, visit SettlersHospitality.com.
